

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS, CSUH

BOD 1993-94

FACULTY DIVERSITY RESOLUTION

- Whereas: Recognizing the ever increasing diversity of people and culture within the United States; and
- Whereas: Understanding that the State of California is a leader in this trend; and
- Whereas: Citing the University Relations and Development study "the minority is now the majority at CSUH" which illuminates the student diversity at California State University, Hayward; and
- Whereas: Noting the Affirmative Action Employment Data 1992-93 study by Institutional Research and Analysis which illustrates the lack of diversity among the faculty at California State University, Hayward; be it therefore
- Resolved: The Associated Students supports the increase of diversity within the faculty and administration of California State University, Hayward to reflect the diversity of people, culture, and gender among the students at California State University, Hayward.

Sunjay K. Nair
Sunjay Nair, Chair

Peter Barabas
Peter Barabas, Vice Chair

Lorri Cline
Lorri Cline, Director-at-Large

Roger D. Green
Roger Green, Director-at-Large

Robert Merikle
Robert Merikle, Bus/Econ Director

Henry Sutanto
Henry Sutanto, CCC Director

Anne Wu
Anne Wu, Science Director

Christina Davis
Christina Davis, ALSS Director

Shawna McCreery
Shawna McCreery, Director-at-Large

Brian Snoddy
Brian Snoddy, Director-at-Large

Madeleine Wisniewski
Madeleine Wisniewski, ALSS Director