Closing the Loop: Programs will provide a narrative discussion of annual assessment results, analysis of those results, and any changes made as a result. This includes curriculum changes, pedagogy changes, changes in PLO's, course SLO's, etc. These results will be reported to CAPR.

Students graduating with a B.A. in Anthropology will be able to:

- SLO 1 identify, summarize and sequence the basic schools of anthropological thought in all four academic sub-fields of the discipline;
- SLO 2 apply basic qualitative and quantitative sociocultural (ethnographic), archaeological, or osteological research methods and skills;
- SLO 3 describe, compare and relate human cultures across different regions of the globe;
- SLO 4 examine human diversity holistically and scientifically, discriminating among and analyzing conceptions and misconceptions of ethnicity, "race," and human biological variation;
- SLO 5 identify pragmatic uses of anthropological methods and perspectives in approaching real-world solutions, and identify instances of and opportunities for applications of anthropological tools and ideas in employment and community development, both locally and globally; and
- SLO 6 communicate information clearly in written and oral forms.
