Proposals:

Criminal Justice Administration – Name Change

A motion was made to discuss the Criminal Justice Administration name change.

Motion: Eros

Second: Kashinath

The department would like to drop “Administration” from their name. According to Dawna Komorosky, Chair, Criminal Justice. The inclusion of the term “Administration” was appropriate at the time the department was created; however, it is now considered an outdated approach to educating students interested in a degree in criminal justice.

No discussion.

Vote: Approved unanimously.

Self-Support Course Proposals in Public Administration

A motion was made to discuss self-support courses in Public Administration.

Motion: Wong

Second: Eros

Associate Dean Chester explained to the committee that extension handles the course work for this program as well as the hiring professors, thus they prepared the course proposals which were submitted in Curriculog.

There were several issues with the proposals, therefore the committee decided to vote online via email once the corrections were made.

These courses were rejected per the department's request due to the fact that they do not wish to continue this program in semesters.

Adjournment was called at 12:23p.m.

Motion: Kashinath

Second: Wong

Vote: Approved unanimously.

Respectfully submitted,

Elizabeth Graw, Curriculum Coordinator

The next meeting will be held on February 13, 2017 at 12 noon in MB 1505.
